

14 September 2017

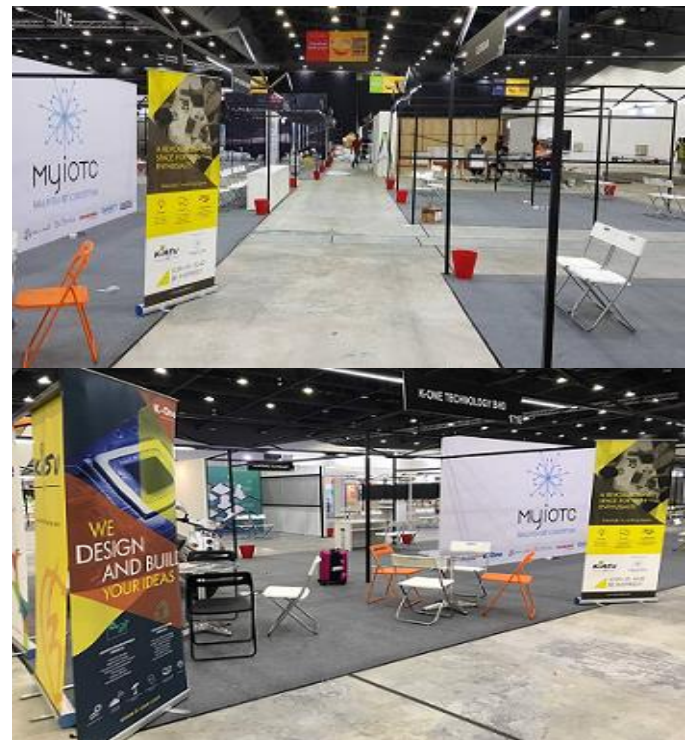

K-ONE & MyIoTc IN SELANGOR SMART CITY & FUTURE COMMERCE CONVENTION 2017

The Selangor Smart City & Future Commerce Convention 2017 held on 7-9 September 2017 at the Setia City Convention Centre, Shah Alam is a 6-in-1 digital and future commerce event which places equal emphasis on smart city solutions, as well as on the various facets of digital commerce, such as Fintech, Smart Commerce, Smart Logistics, Cryptocurrencies and Blockchain technology, among others.

Grand entrance to the exhibition hall

MyIoTc (Malaysia IoT Consortium), which K-One is one of the 7 founding members is a supporting partner of this exhibition. Both MyIoTc members and K-One participated in this international showcasing exhibition. KiasuLab, the co-working business arm of K-One served as the community partner to promote co-working space.

Pre-exhibition setup

Supporting team representing K-One and KiasuLab

This exhibition was officiated by Y.A.B. Dato' Seri Mohamed Azmin Ali, the Honourable Menteri Besar of Selangor on 7 September 2017.

Dato' Seri Mohamed Azmin Ali with YB Elizabeth Wong Keat Ping (left) and Datuk Teng Chang Khim (right) walking through the exhibition hall

Press conference at Invest Selangor's pavilion

Technology giants such as Google, Nvidia, Alibaba and Tencent took part in the Future Commerce Forum to discuss digital issues and online marketing. Another highlight of the event was the 48-hour smart city hackathons which claimed to be one of South East Asia's biggest hackathons ever.

Raymond Goh representing K-One to share on Group's profile

MyloTC's top guns and K-One staffs

Visitors from various industries paying a visit to our booth